Soul Clearing on your Life Purpose

Your soul knows who you are and what is your purpose in this life. Every idea that you have ever channelled comes from the Divine Mind, source of all. Once you connect to an idea, you then have some thoughts and these thoughts are translated into words. Our words are our first step towards the manifestation of our desires in the visible world. It is through our words that we manifest our reality.

This clearing/reading will look at various areas that might stop you having clarity to move forward more in alignment with your Divine Self.

I will also share with you affirmations that will support you on your path...

Spirit rarely gives us the end destination as the actual journey, learning and growth are actually the destination. Learning as we go along the necessary spiritual laws and applying them in our day to day life is the core purpose of our journeys. We all have gifts which will help us on this journey, so today let's look at what your gifts are, what your blocks to stop connecting and hearing Spirit, your co-creating partner, and where you need to focus your energies at the moment:

Hearing Spirit as your co-creator

Is there anything that blocks your consciousness of Unity with SPIRIT?

Is there anything blocking your personal path of Unity with SPIRIT?

What do you need to clear to create and hear my Divine Self?

Is there anything that blocks your ability to remember and experience oneness with the Source?

Full Soul Clearing on the 7 chakras, Aura & 10 \(Kundalini\) bodies

7 Chakras & Aura

Our physical body mainly consists of millions of cells, each of which is vibrating at a slow rate and giving off certain amount of energy. Surrounding this physical body is another lighter and finer body of energy that vibrates at a greater rate than those of our cells. This constitutes our Aura. Thus, simply explained, the Aura is to our physical body what the atmosphere is to Earth. Aura can be defined as a field of energy or light that surrounds every physical body on this planet.

The word Chakra is derived from the Sanskrit language meaning spinning vortexes of energy. These vortexes or pools of energy lie inside our physical bodies. There are 7 main Chakras, each connected to a major organ and located along the spine. The Chakras are 'power stations' of the body, in that; they are responsible for distributing the energy throughout the body.

Both Chakras and Auras are vital to an individual's health and well being. Both these channels of energy can get 'clogged' due to stress or illness and impact overall health. This clearing will cleanse your chakras which help them being more stable and stronger as well as your aura. A great way to increase your vibration...

10 Kundalini Bodies

You know your physical body but you probably don't know that we have other bodies (as per the Kundalini's understanding of our energy bodies). Visualize the other 9 bodies as layers of clothing, the physical body being the overcoat you wear for this lifetime. This clearing will work on each body as follows:

1. Soul body (never dies - someone describes it as God's light in our heart)

then part of the mental bodies, we have:

2. The negative mind (protects you of any danger or loss)

3. The positive mind (tells you the advantage or possible gain for you in any situation)

4. The neutral mind (uses negative mind and positive mind to make best decision for you along with intuitive knowledge).

5. Physical body

6. Arc Body (line of energy that goes in an arc from ear tip to ear tip - sometimes called "halo")

7. Auric Body (sphere of electromagnetic energy that surrounds your physical body - this body protects you and gives you the ability to uplift yourself and others.)

8. Pranic Body (controls the breath and takes in "prana" (life force energy/reiki)

9. Subtle Body (gives you the opportunity to understand and master the subtlety of life. It can help you understand what is going on around you and how things work.

Healing the Desire to Suffer - Full Clearing

Releasing pain and discord from the body

What is the desire to suffer?

Robert Detzler in his book "Soul Re-creation" describes it as follows:

"This is the negative belief that lessons are better learned through suffering and that suffering makes one pure and holy."

Why to clear this desire?

As extensions of Spirit, freedom and joy are our birthright.

However, as we embark on the schoolwork called incarnating, we can encounter many challenges that seem to conspire to keep us stuck in the illusion that we are separate and cut off from Source.

Often, a soul/spirit can believe that the school of hard knocks is the only way to learn and that pain is the best teacher. We are often driven to reinforce the idea of "no pain no gain, by repeating patterns of suffering. We can also feel compelled to stay stuck in a "Saviour" pattern, diving into the programming of others with the desire to assist but instead getting caught in the undertow of discordant energies. This can be described as a "co-dependency" programming where the rescuer wishes to be rescued subconsciously by the rescuee. Most of us have been brought up in this emotional pattern which always leads from time to time to great pain and little progress.

Suffering is not mandatory, nor is pain necessarily the best teacher. Moreover, through the law of attraction and other cosmic laws we know now that the right path is always the path of least resistance...

This clearing will help you release the myriad ways that you have consciously and subconsciously incorporated suffering into our expression and help you attract and choose consciously the easiest path. It will also connect you with the idea that there is divine timing and to let go of things which are not ready to mature...or not aligned to your Truth/Soul.

What is included?

This clearing will look at the ways that suffering is manifesting in the physical: what is going on energetically in your life?

- Is there illness?
- Are there mental and emotional challenges such as depression or anxiety?
- Are there patterns of rejection and loss and continued blocks to abundance?

A daily affirmation will be given to help you change some of your conscious thought patterns.
